10:30 – 12:30 Keynote Speakers and Working Session 1: Towards a systemic transformation to counter corruption

Location: Former Presidents Room

- Moderator: Cecilia Chacón (Peru), congresswoman and ParlAmericas Board Member
- Shaazka Beyerle, Senior Research Advisor, Program on Nonviolent Action, United States Institute of Peace
- Juan Ricardo Ortega, Senior Advisor, Inter-American Development Bank

Following the Lima Commitment adopted at the 8th Summit of the Americas on “Democratic Governance Against Corruption”, the Inter-American Development Bank commissioned a Report by an Expert Advisory Group on Anti-Corruption, Transparency, and Integrity in Latin America and the Caribbean to identify innovative and effective approaches to combat corruption in the region. Based on this report, this session will analyze the key features of corruption in the region and propose an ambitious agenda toward more systemic transformation, focusing on the implementation of the rule of law and in controlling corruption.

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch

Location: Multipurpose Room

14:00 – 17:00 Working Session 2: Strengthening parliamentary oversight to promote openness and counter corruption

- Moderator: María Inés Solís (Costa Rica), Vice-President of the Legislative Assembly and ParlAmericas Board Member
- Anande Trotman-Joseph, Chairperson, Integrity and Anti Corruption Commission of Grenada

- Esteban Fullin, Regional Adviser for Latinamerica & Caribbean on Anti Money Laundering, International Monetary Fund
- Juan Ricardo Ortega, Senior Advisor, Inter-American Development Bank
- Jaime B. Guerrero, Partner, Foley & Lardner LLP
- Facilitator: Randy Boissonnault (Canada), Member of Parliament and Vice-President of the ParlAmericas Open Parliament Network

An open parliament is transparent, accountable, creates opportunities for citizen participation and respects the highest ethical standards. It also promotes the application of these principles in the executive branch of government, through its oversight function. This session will explore strategies and mechanisms to strengthen parliamentary oversight of legislative frameworks and practices to open governments, prevent corruption, prosecute perpetrators and recover stolen assets.

Thursday March 14, 2019

08:00 Transfer of participants to the National Assembly of Ecuador

09:00 – 09:30 Results of open parliament commitments presented at the 3rd Gathering of the Open Parliament Network

Location: Former Presidents Room

- Moderator: Javier Macaya (Chile), Member of the Chamber of Deputies and Vice-President of the ParlAmericas Open Parliament Network

Parliaments that presented commitments at the previous gathering of the Open Parliament Network will present the results of these commitments, which are listed on the Parliamentary Commitment Tool on ParlAmericas' website.

09:30 – 10:00 Presentation of new open parliament commitments by parliamentary delegations

- Moderator: Andy Daniel (Saint Lucia), Speaker of the House of Assembly and ParlAmericas Board Member

Parliamentary delegations will present new commitments for the following year, which will be published in the Parliamentary Commitment Tool on ParlAmericas' website, along with their respective results.

10:00 – 10:15 Launch of the Parliamentary Protocol for Disaster Risk Reduction and Climate Change Adaptation

- Jennifer Simons (Suriname), Speaker of the National Assembly and Vice-President of the ParlAmericas Parliamentary Network on Climate Change

10:15 – 12:30 Working Session 3: Applying openness practices to advance sustainable development

- Moderator: Arthur E. Holder (Barbados), Speaker of the House of Assembly and ParlAmericas Board Member and ParlAmericas Board Member
- Zakiya Uzoma-Wadada, Chair, Caribbean Natural Resources Institute
- Leví Sucre, Coordinator, Atlantic Block of the Bribí Cabécar Indigenous Network
- Juana Herrera, President, National Forum of Women in Political Parties (FONAMUPP)

Parliament's oversight role goes beyond good governance frameworks to everyday issues, including those covered within the Sustainable Development Goals, which truly impact citizens' lives. Promoting the application of openness principles in government policies and programming related to these issues, as well as in the parliament's oversight of these areas, can strengthen this process and lead to better public policy. This session will focus on developing concrete actions that can be taken by parliaments to foster a more open State, through case studies focusing on gender equality, climate change adaptation and disaster risk reduction, and the inclusion of indigenous peoples.
