Build Back Better: A Green and Sustainable Economic Recovery
(English interpretation available)

Virtual meeting for parliamentarians and parliamentary staff of the Americas

Friday, July 10, 2020 | 10:30 EDT (UTC – 04:00)

The COVID-19 pandemic has exposed the unsustainability and pre-existing inequalities of current economic and social systems, but it has also created an opportunity to build back better and rethink such systems and, in this way, generate a paradigm shift towards a more sustainable development. This meeting will aim to explore how climate change and environmental health can be considered as an important component of economic recovery plans.
